WROCLAW INTRO ...The moment I stepped out from the train station I fell in love with this city...

SHARP ENOUGH TO BE HERE & HOLDING A CITYSPY MAP!

WROCLAW is the European Capital of Culture of 2016, so we're in the highest of high spots. The city is now ripe to spill out on the shady spots, transform the transport & modernise all that medieval madness! This is an ancient CITY OF ART so be on the alert for a gallery, a mural, a little inspiration...

DWARF TOWN <|:~><|:~>||/;

THE HOTTEST city in Poland, it's average temperature is always the highest, even in the day! Late night beer outside - Wyspa Słodowa (D4), Wyspa Płaskowa (D4) or Ostrow Tumski (by the river E5). It used to be the places where police never showed up to see drinking out against the LAW. Actually OR is that technically...? but lately things change - just don't feel too confident (or is that drunk...):)

...WROCLAW HAS AN OBSESSION about dogs - almost everywhere there is one. It is nice, pet friendly places all around, though you do have to look under your feet... or sit! happens...

Wrocław is very safe, NO NEED TO WORRY while walking around the CITY AT NIGHT

...One of the city's wonderful secrets is the crazy STREET-ART all over the City (we've highlighted THE COOLEST MURALS on the map in magenta). Look careful, note OWLS on buildings all over the city by the Wrocław Zoo, THE MYSTERIOUS THEODORE, and where BUSKERS NEVER SLEEP! When rockin' it out in an incredible abundance animating the city's street life; passers-by encouraged to join in there... or throw a few pennys in...

ARCHITECTURE
HODCEPOD, mixed bag, random, eclectic, whatche hell is that, to describe Wrocław's colorful & intriguing architectural landscape.

YOU GOT YOUR EYEGASSES:
GOthic in RED: CATHEDRAL OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST Ostrow Tumski- E5

RENAISSANCE: to be specific, the TOWN HALL is a mixture of styles (from Late Gothic, through Renaissance, to 17th century rich architecture), not just plain Renaissance. It's absolutely unique - Town Hall, Rynek -F3

BULGING BAROQUE: UNIVERSITY BUILDING, Grodzka St.-E3, & full of students

MODERNIST IN THE GREY: HALA LUDOWA, Wystawowa 1, Concrete Constructivist

WET HISTORISM: WATER TOWER, Sudecka st. 125a

SOCIALIST REALISM: Buildings on Kosciuszki Square -I2

EXPRESSIONIST: KAMELEON Department store, Szewska st. -G3. The story of Wrocław's architecture is the story of its often tumultuous but also rich & cultural past.

BEST VIEWS OF THE CITY & its skyline CLIMBS ALL OF THEM. THAT'S THREE MAJOR CATHEDRALS

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST on Ostrow Tumski (E5) - the highest, oldest & most beautiful Cathedral in town.

ST. ELISABETHS on St. Mikolaja st. - best view of the Market Square & old town (F2); &

ST. MARY MAGDALEN'S CHURCH on Szewska st. (F3); the only Cathedral with a bridge connecting the belfries for reasons unknown...

LOCAL SPECIALTY
...HYBRID POTATO DUMPLINGS... There are small ones called "KLUKSI", which are just potato & have a hole in the middle; "PZYZY" usually with a meaty center; & "KOPYTKI" are slightly bigger

HALA LUDOWA: (HALA STULECIA)
THE PEOPLES HALL!
Wystawowa 1... Don't miss this Architectural marvel. I haven't seen anything this impressive since the big metal thing in Paris... plan to stay for a few days with us here with this place & the surrounding ZOO park & gardens. Well worth the trip outside of the center.

A-GNOME-LIES:
... A little known fact about Wrocław is that it is home to a population of A-Gnome gnomes... Some of these little critters jump right out at you, so most of them are hidden quite well... nobody knows how many in total, even over the city... finding a new one is always a big deal... see if you can locate them all... They all have their own names, professions & stories. But seriously these little dudes actually have a lot of SYMBOLIC MEANING for ROCKAWL. In the 1980's a group of artists called the ORANGE ALTERNATIVE staged DADAIST action of which was to dress up like gnomes & run around the city... in warm underwear

THE RED BARON:
The only & early was born & raised in Wrocław. He was a German pilot & is known for being the terror of the German Imperial Air Service in WWI. He had more confirmed kills than any other pilot in the war. He is officially credited with 73 kills & inspiring exactly one Charles Schultz parody & more than 10 porno. More of a high flyer stylist
